Testimonials

Nathan -

"Being around other Bitcoiners, regardless of their background or experience level, is energizing and uplifting. Nobody should underestimate the power of a physical space to bring people together to build upon the world's best digital asset."

Tatum -

The Space has helped me in many ways, especially in finding a community of like minded people in a new city after I moved to Denver and knew no one. I've formed friendships that are going to last a lifetime.

Jeff -

The Denver Space is the community you want to join and participate in so as to turbo-charge Bitcoin's impact in your life. I'm a 25 year veteran of large tech companies who recently stepped away from it all to re-orient full-time in Bitcoin community. Absolutely zero regrets. Best decision I've made in a very long time. Denver's Bitcoin community, centered around the Space, is thriving and is making an impact globally. The thought leadership at Denver's Space is amazing and accessible to the rest of us who are more recently trying to understand the impact of truly sound and immutable money in their lives. These are early days. We are all learning. You are welcomed here

Sponsor Value Proposition

Exposure

Promote your Bitcoin mission IRL. Sponsors can host targeted educational or ticketed events designed to support your cause.

Scarcity

There are 3 bitcoin citadels in the United States of America, the other two are spoken for by corporate sponsors. The only thing more scarce than sponsorship opportunities of bitcoin citadels is bitcoin itself

Clout

Build brand reputation amongst the Bitcoin community - a group high conversion customers, employees, and investors

Energy

We are a group of builders working across the bitcoin ecosystem, that's infectious. Tap into the unbounded energy assets of The Space.
